A lot of work is needed

That is what all FFA and 4-H members are saying about now as they prepare their animals for the Medina County Junior Livestock Show coming up Monday and Tuesday, February 5-6. This animal being worked on by Tim Hardt, left, and Andy Aelvoet, probably will look much sleeker when he enters the show ring. But to have him that way has consumed many hours of work, worry and much effort. All 4-H and FFA members are proud of their efforts and extend a cordial invitation to everyone to attend the show this year. In fact, they almost guarantee you'll enjoy it. [Photo by Joe Fohn]

Mrs. N. Paul Pope receives high honor

Award presentations highlighted the annual Dinner Meeting of the Medina County Council of Camp

RECEIVING—the Luther Halsey Gulic Award in Camp Fire proved to be a pleasant surprise to Mrs. N. Paul Pope Monday night. Mrs. Mary Meyer, president of the Medina County Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., presents Mrs. Pope this coveted award. [Photo by Ted Mendoza]

Fire Girls, Inc. held Monday night in the Meyer Elementary School cafeteria with some 100 persons present.

Mrs. N. Paul Pope received the Luther Halsey Gulic Award, the highest form of recognition in a local council and "is reserved for the very special recognition needs."

The inscription on this award reads: "This award is designed to recognize the very special, outstanding council leadership over an extended period of time of a person who has served in top administrative capacities such as officers, board members, committee chairmen, council advisers, giving visible, distinctive service to the harmonious growth and expansion of the council."

Other awards presented included: the SEBAGO award to Miss Mary Ruth Cameron and Mrs. Mary Louise DePuy. It read: "This award is for outstanding contributions in the total field of camping and

... has said he probably will not run for re-election come April and this should shoot the temperature of local politics to a high mark.

George says that business matters have become too pressing and he needs to devote more time to them.

This of course leads the field wide open for anyone who wishes to run—not that it wouldn't have been wide open had George chosen to run [or if he changes his mind].

At the present I have not heard of anyone who definitely want to take on a race, even though there are rumors. But I expect that by the filing deadline, which is around the 6th or 7th of March, there will be some hats thrown into the ring.

MRS. N. PAUL POPE

... was surprised two times Monday night and she said both instances had left her in a "state of shock".

First, she received the Luther Halsey Gulic Award from the Medina County Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc. She says this high award, presented by the president Mrs. Mary Meyer, "floored her".

But she wasn't through being surprised.

For at the end of the presentation, guess who came forward to congratulate and kiss her? Her two daughters, Diane and Mary, who had slipped into town without her knowing it.

It seems the Executive Director of the South-Southwest Region of Camp Fire Girls had called Diane [Mrs. Dan Adamson of Richardson] and informed her of the award.

Diane, in turn, contacted Mary [Mrs. William Robertson of Eulless] and the two flew to San Antonio, rented a car and slipped into the dinner meeting without their mother knowing they were coming.

So, you can't wonder why Mrs. Pope says, "I'm still in an utter state of shock."

But you can bet both surprises were pleasant shocks, right Ward?

Entries, interest higher in annual Jr. Livestock Show

Almost 400 lambs, calves, swine, and poultry will end their life of ease with a dead-end trip to the auction ring on Monday and Tuesday, February 5 and 6.

But in between, they will be the center of attention as the Thirty-Second Annual Medina County Junior Livestock Show gets underway at the Show Barn near the Hondo Livestock Auction.

County Agent Glenn Bragg is aiding in last-minute preparations of animals and facilities for the show, which will begin with receiving and siting of livestock at 7 a.m.

Monday.

This year's stock show will provide extra encouragement for young exhibitors to do a good job of showing their stock.

Instead of a single showmanship award for the best exhibitor, the Hondo Young Farmers have split the award into lamb, calf, and swine categories.

Judging of animals will begin Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with hogs being judged first. At 2:30 p.m., poultry judging will begin and lambs will be judged beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Tuesday, judging of calves will be held beginning at 9 a.m. Commercial feeder cattle will be judged beginning at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

The auction of livestock will begin at 1 p.m. Tuesday.

Prize money and ribbons will be awarded at judging.

Officers for the 1973 Stock Show are James Barta, President; John Law, Vice President; Glenn Bragg, Executive Secretary; B. C. McDorald, Treasurer; and Lloyd Hardt, Treasurer for sales transactions.

Judges will include Jack Lacy, Superintendent of Schools at Lampasas. He will be judging calves.

John Kerchville, Boerne Vo-Ag teacher, will judge lambs. Carl Lehman, Vo-Ag teacher from Center Point, will be the swine judge. Gerald B. Champayne, a poultry specialist from Southwest Texas State University, will judge the poultry.

A judge for commercial feeder steers will be announced at the show.

Superintendents for the show include Butch Roberson, J. D. Schmidt, Calvin Bendele, Morris Salzman, Clifford Keller and Phil Rodgers with market pigs. Clarence Wurzbach, Bill Moos, Henry Moss, Dan Dodgen and Louis Wernette will handle steers.

Chester Saathoff, Edson Oefinger, Wayne Cheney, Robert Zuberbueller, F. L. Stein, John Bendele and Henry Schirmer will handle the lamb exhibits.

John Law, Travis Byrom and James Urban will oversee the poultry exhibits, and commercial calves will be supervised by John McAnelly and O. O. Gilliam.

Lynch named counselor

A new director has been named for the testing and counseling program at Hondo High School, according to Supt. Kenneth Flory.

Richard Charles Lynch, a former Hondo High graduate now living in Arvada, Colorado, will assume these duties, as well as individual and group counseling at the high school and McDowell School.

Lynch will fill the vacancy left by the retirement of Morris S. Shelton, who along with his wife Johnnie M. Shelton, is retiring from the teaching profession.

Lynch will begin his duties with the local system on August 1 of this year and Mr. and Mrs. Shelton will retire sometime in the summer.

The new counselor-to-be graduated from Hondo High School in the early 1940's. Following that he earned his BS degree from Southwestern University in Georgetown and his MA from Southwest Texas State University at San Marcos.

Lynch, who holds certificates in high school, elementary, principal, superintendent and counseling, is presently employed as Director of Admissions and Records, Community College of Denver.

He and his wife have four children, Terri, 20; Jeffry, 15; Lisa, 13; and David, 11.

Senator Tower letter adds housing hope

Is there a possibility that housing funds are not completely frozen and some could be made available in Hondo?

This is the question raised after the receipt of a letter by the Hondo Chamber of Commerce. The letter was written to U. S. Senator John Tower by Finnis E. Jolly, Area Director of the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Fort Worth.

Senator Tower's letter was in response to an inquiry from the Hondo Chamber of Commerce about the critical housing shortage in Hondo.

The Senator's letter to the Chamber and his reply from Mr. Jolly read:

Farm Bureau plans membership meet

Medina County Farm Bureau directors and guests will meet Tuesday morning to kick off their 1973 membership drive.

The event will be a Membership Breakfast at the 7:30 a.m. Tuesday, February 6, in the New Frontier Restaurant in Hondo.

R. A. Rodgers, Farm Bureau president from Dunlay, will preside over the breakfast which is held annually at the beginning of Farm Bureau Week to kick off the membership drive.

For your reference, I am enclosing a copy of the reply to this inquiry on your behalf. I hope that this will provide you with some helpful information in this regard.

If I may be of further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Honorable John G. Tower

Dear Senator Tower:

We have reviewed the letter to you from Mr. Burnis K. Lawrence, President of the Hondo Chamber of Commerce, dated December 15, 1972, concerning recent restrictions imposed for funding certain subsidized housing programs. Mr. Lawrence has stated that the need for housing in Hondo is critical due to the influx of families resulting from the establishment of a new business firm and the expansion of facilities at the Hondo air base.

It is true that at the present time funds are not being allocated for our subsidized housing programs with respect to new units. However, there is the possibility of some relief through the unsubsidized housing programs, such as Sections 203(b), 221(d)(4), etc. Representatives of our office will be most happy to discuss the unsubsidized programs with Mr. Lawrence at his convenience.

If we can be of further assistance, please let us know.

Sincerely,
Finnis E. Jolly

LETTER TO EDITOR 1-25

Editor:
Thanks to your paper for the coverage you gave the University of Texas course in Accounts Management that was held in Pearsall last week. It was really very successful in spite of the ice and snow. Seventy-four attended. Next to one Texas city, this was the largest number to attend this course. It speaks well of the sponsors, The Dilley State Bank, The Medina Valley State Bank, The Security State Bank and the Credit Bureau Service Center. It speaks so much of the men and women who braved the weather for this continuing education course. Your paper, radio, and sponsors along with the news media of the area really got the news to those who were interested.

I am looking forward to the class on Accounts Management that we are bringing to Hondo March 13-15 and sponsored by Credit Bureau Service Center, The D'Hanis State Bank, Hondo National Bank and The Lytle State Bank.

Thank you again for the news coverage.

I apologize for the delay in acknowledging your letter of December 15. I was away at the time and recently had an opportunity to read it.

is here studying English with Father George Steuben. Also in Hondo is Father Juan Alcala who also is studying English. We certainly welcome them to Hondo. The two paid our Chamber a high compliment, by saying the San Antonio Chamber brochure library had very little to offer in comparison to ours.

Rick Fernandez, U.S. Coast Guard Recruiter, has offered to ditto any books, pamphlets, sheets for any organization who needs and desires them. Thanks Rick. We've already taken him up on the offer.

Jack Crockett from Houston came into the chamber office to express his desire to buy a couple sections of land for hunting purposes. He was referred to our realtors.

We received a long distance call from Mrs. B. W. Shaw of Galveston asking for all Hondo information. She, her husband and four children came through here last week and were so impressed with our clean and well-kept town. They thought it was much larger. They also were especially impressed with the schools, and expressed a desire to move here. We will help by supplying them all the information they seek.

Received a supply of Texas Trail Brochure magazines to distribute to the public. Albert Schwoppe was also kind enough to deliver us another supply of Texas Highway Maps.

Had to write to Austin Chamber for more material on the capitol city. Am surprised at the number of requests we received on this material.

And just to keep a running tab on activities here are some for the week: Army recruitment, 1; Welfare information, 1; Job Applications and Referrals, 13; Food commodity, 6; visitors, 1; Letters seeking information on Hondo and Medina County, 6; Hunting, 7; Brochures, 6; Junior Livestock Show inquiries and payments to pool, 8; Maps of Hondo and Medina County, 2; Real estate and rentals, 10; Long distance calls (incoming), 4; Salvation Army, 5; Sale of acreage, 2; Javelina hunting from Fort Hood, 1; Telephone directory use, 1.

Weather

Rains of January 24 and 25 seemed to total a very general 1.40 inches around the county.

Rainfall reports of that amount are found in all quadrants of the county map, and they indicate that the drizzle and sleet were not without their beneficial side, slush and slick streets aside.

For February, the moonwatching weathermen look for a rainy month, especially on weekends.

No less than three consecutive Saturdays in February will contain early morning moon changes. Since a rain is indicated on or near each moon change which occurs in the early morning hours, this stacks up as a Saturday outdoorsman's nightmare.

Saturday, February 3, will see the coming of the new moon at 3:23 a.m. Exactly seven days later on February 10, the first quarter will arrive at 8:05 a.m. And, a week later on Saturday, February 17, full moon will occur around 4:07 a.m.

Twenty-four to thirty-six hours is the tolerance the Taylor-Chapman Service allows on either side of a moon change to claim credit for a rain.

George Brucks is one of the early ones also. But we are glad to have a few around when we see Henry Gonzales at Dan's Drug shave off a perfectly good looking mustache.

The Winter Tri-annual Directors' meeting of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association will be in Austin at the Villa Capri Motel February 5-6, according to John S. Cargile, Association president from San Angelo.

Highlight of the meeting will be a reception and dinner for the Senate and House members. "This is our way of saying 'Thanks' to these fine people for the time they are giving to the affairs of our State," said Cargile. The legislators and their wives will be served barbecued lamb and cabrito with all the trimmings.

Registration will begin at 11 a.m. Monday, February 5. Hondo farmers listed 1972 yield survey

Eight farmers from the Hondo area have been included in the 1972 Yield Survey for Central and South Texas published by Pioneer Hi-Bred Company of Plainview. To qualify for listing, each farmer was asked to submit a report of the Pioneer brand seeds he planted, the conditions of weather and fertility under which they were grown, and the yield per acre.

Compiled from information in these reports, the Yield Survey lists farmer's hometown, variety planted, yield and farmer's name. A county-by-county listing of average yields for corn and sorghum without brand reference is also included.

Area farmers listed in the Survey are Leslie D. Muennink, Harlan Wolff, Floyd Saathoff, Arnold Saathoff, Clarence Neuman, John's Farm, Edgar Saathoff, and Milton Poehler.

Copies of the Yield Survey are available free of charge from Pioneer dealers.

Nominations coming in for top salesperson in Hondo

Have you nominated anyone for the Outstanding Salesperson contest?

Time's a'wasting if you haven't. Purpose of the contest sponsored by the Anvil Herald during the special eight-week Trade In Hondo promotion is to recognize the outstanding salesperson in town.

In fact, we will honor three of these people. The three who gain the top number of votes in the contest. Each one will have a picture and a story in the Anvil Herald and cash prizes will be awarded also.

There is no doubt but that salespeople play an important role in keeping shoppers in Hondo. They play a vital part in making tourists or other visitors remember Hondo. They are part of the machine that makes the town grow and without them this machinery would come to a dead stop.

So why not recognize them? Clip the coupon in this paper and nominate someone. Are they courteous? Are they friendly? Do they know their merchandise? Are they helpful? Do they make sales? Are they the type of person you want to go back and buy from? Are they happy? Do they smile often?

These and many more attributes can go into selecting the person you wish to nominate for the Outstanding Salesperson. But nominate someone. Name them on this coupon and mail it back to the Anvil Herald.

Meeting to plan big Museum Day

Festivities of Museum Celebration Day, slated for May 5, will receive full attention at a meeting Monday night.

Museum directors will meet at the Medina Electric Cooperative building at 7 p.m. and discuss a broad outline of what is going to take place May 5 and 6.

May 5 falls on Saturday and will be designated as the day for all the fun. In addition to all booths, concessions and events sponsored last year, directors hope to include new events like a Chili Cookout under the supervision of Bill Green.

Sunday, May 6, has been set aside for the Museum Antique and Collectors Auction. This year plans call for the auction to be held at the 4-H Livestock Barn at Hondo Livestock Auction.

"The Monday night meeting is not just for directors," said Museum President Frank Graff. "We would like anyone who is interested in the Museum, who has any suggestions to make on Museum Day, who wants to sponsor or suggest a new concession to just come out and join in the discussion."

New industry plans operation

A new industry employing some 10-12 persons should begin operations in Hondo within the immediate future, according to an announcement by City Manager Fritz Leinweber.

The City of Hondo Tuesday signed a five-year lease with Ivan R. Moore of Utopia for the use of a building at the Airbase. He also has options on two other buildings.

Moore said he is going to manufacture campers, trailers and mobile homes, probably under the business name of Peg-Moore.

He told city officials he would employ 10-12 persons right now, including several women.

The company will set up in the 4,320 square foot building immediately west of the tomato growing area near the golf course office. Leinweber says the lease was signed at $45 per month rent, with the city putting a new roof on the building and the company putting the rest in shape.

Locals earn prizes in Pecan Show

The Seventh Annual Western Pecan Conference, the International Pecan Show and the Pecan Food Fantasy was held at Corbett Center, New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, New Mexico, January 22-25.

The Conference was attended by the Rev. Wunibald W. Schneider, Pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church, Stonewall, Texas, and the Very Rev. Victor G. Schmidtinsky, V.F., and Pastor of Holy Cross Church, D'Hanis. The Conference program contained many good speakers on very important topics.

Local pecan entries were sent to the International Pecan Show; some arrived and some did not. Among the exhibits that arrived, Mrs. Alma Zerr, D'Hanis, took 2nd place with her Success variety; Clarence P. Wurzbach, Rio Medina, took two first places with his Comanche and Delmas varieties, and third place with his Elliott variety.

The entry exhibits from Holy Cross Church, D'Hanis, Lester Zerr, San Antonio, as well as the many entries from Mexico, did not arrive for the Show. Due to the sudden death of Lyndon B. Johnson, former President, and a very crowded program the conference was not as enthusiastic as last year. A better conference is planned for 1974.

According to Dr. J. Benton Storey, Horticulturist of Texas A&M University, the Texas Pecan Growers Annual Conference and the Texas State Pecan Show will be held in July, 1973, either in San Antonio or New Braunfels. All indications are that it will be held in New Braunfels, since it has completed a new civic center. Regional prize-winning entries from Medina County will compete for State awards.

Survivors of disabled workers who died in 1970 or 1971 without having filed a social security claim, may now do so for them up through January 31, 1973.

Ewald - Hagen vows told

Miss Carol Ann Ewald and George Edmund Hagen were united in marriage on Saturday, January 13, 1973, at 5:00 p.m. in Friedens United Church of Christ in Geronimo, Texas. Brother Barney Federwisch performed the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Albert Kypher played the nuptial music on the organ. The altar vases were filled with white carnations and gypsophila and the chancel was filled with multiple candleabra holding white tapers. The standards were draped in southern moss and tied with a red bow and steamers. The aisle was tied off in white satin ribbon with a center of white carnation clusters.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ewald of Marion, Texas. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Hagen of Route 1, Devine.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of angelskin peau de soie and re-embroidered lace front of bodice and front and back of the skirt and on chapel train that featured a butterfly bustle designed with a high collar, Victorian sleeves, princess silhouette re-embroidered with sequins and pearls. For something old, she wore a pin that her maternal grandmother wore on her wedding day 50 years ago on Jan. 20, 1923. Her butterfly veil of nylon illusion was attached to a satin band with lace chantilly peau petals trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a stemmed bouquet heart edged in white lace with white streamers of lace and satin. The heart was tied in white carnations and gypsophila.

Mary Beth Flack of Edcouch was maid of honor. Junior maid of honor was Nancy Carol Neff, cousin of the bride of McQueeney. Bridesmaids were Janice Hagen, sister of the groom, Devine, and Pamela Kreeger, cousin of the bride, Cibolo.

They wore identical atom red satin dresses featuring a standup collar, short puffed sleeves designed with a slightly gathered skirt. White sweetheart buttons were down the front of the bodice. The maid of honor and the junior maid of honor wore identical dresses except white lace was set on the waistband. Their headpieces were red and white flowers with tulle too match their dresses. The attendants each carried a white stemmed heart edged in white lace. The hearts were tied in red and peppermint carnations.

Mike Herring, Devine, served his cousin as best man. Groomsmen were Daniel Ewald, Marion, brother of the bride, and Jeff Hagen, brother of the groom, Devine. Ushers were Marvin Bendele, Devine, Leonard Lewis, III, Devine and Kenneth Herring, cousin of the groom, Fort Bliss, El Paso.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at Hermann Sons Hall in Seguin.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Gilbert Neff, McQueeney, was head of the houseparty. Servers were Firmin Richter of Kingsville, Mildred Woerndel of Seguin, Karen Wolter, San Marcos, Jamie Krueger, Cibolo, Pam Rheinlander, New Braunfels, and Joyce Kucherka, Seguin.

The bride chose for her going away costume a red pantsuit trimmed in white; she wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple are at home at 1530 N. Wells, Kingsville.

The bride graduated from Marion High School and is a junior at Texas A&I University in Kingsville where she is majoring in elementary education with specialization in speech therapy. The groom graduated from Devine High School and is a senior at Texas A&I majoring in agricultural education.

Guests were from Edcouch, Floresville, Victoria, Fort Bliss, Deer Park, Richardson, Killeen, Mansfield, Kingsville, Skidmore, Natalia, Devine, Big Foot, Converse, Lytle, San Marcos, Kingsbury, San Antonio, Cibolo, McQueeney, Seguin, Marion and New Braunfels.

The rehearsal supper was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hagen.

BY EDNA McDADE

February, already yet! Where did January's allotted one and thirty days go? As days go, they went and the 31 were not nearly enough for my snail's pace speed to get all the things done I had planned to do.

Time now to see what I can do with February's 28 days of 24 hours each. Stop wishing and keep working might help.

Corpus Christi's Chinese community of about 100 persons will observe their New Year Saturday, February 3, with an elaborate celebration lasting for about 15 days and following centuries-old traditions. Among them are these which would seem strange to Americans but which have their good points:

Younger members of a family receive gifts of money folded within red peppers; the eldest member points out mistakes others have made during the past year and suggests ways for improvement in the coming year.

The first three days of this new Year of the Ox cover certain restrictions: Nothing may be thrown out, not even garbage. It is a time to accumulate things, in order to encourage prosperity. Debts may not be collected and only good thoughts may be expressed. (How about the thoughts of bill collectors?)

This week I made a new friend. She is Mrs. RUBY BOWERS, of this city, and aunt of Hondo's LOUISE [Mrs. Toby] TAYLOR. "Aunt Ruby" is a tiny person but full of sparkle and not about to sit still for very long. She and Louise and DOLORES [Mrs. Bill] RILEY of San Antonio spent a while with me last week and I enjoyed hearing Hondo news even if Louise did say, "You'll probably be reading about it in the Herald."

Thing is, I sometimes have to wait 5 or 6 days before the Herald gets to my mail box. Seems like, when it comes to mail delivery, speed is of the isn't!

Other visitors "from home", during the Christmas holidays, included THEO and JUDY [Nester] LORFING, now of Kingsville, where they have recently opened Judy's Dress Shop.

They came to deliver one of Judy's popular "Alms Box" bags for one of my grandnieces who just "had to have" one like the attractive one with a road runner design which was a gift to me from an indulgent sister.

While the Lorfings were here, Theo told me how he got his name. He said that when he was born, the doctor asked what he was to be named so he could make the proper report for statistics.

Said Theo, "My Dad scratched his head, looked me over and said, 'Well, I can't decide but this-is-the-awfullest-looking kid I ever saw! -- so, that's how come I was named Theophilus.'"

This sounds like a believe-it-or-not story but, remembering the late and beloved Rev. M. J. Lorfing, I can well believe it. His happy philosophy, ready wit and laughter must still echo through many a memory.

Although members of the medical profession of this day and time work wonders with whatever ails us (and, man, can we ail as the years zip by!), it is doubtful if any of these dedicated men or women, would claim to be capable of performing "miracles" as did one master of self confidence who advertised in this newspaper in the early 1900s: "cross eyes straightened FREE with no chloroform, no pain, in ten (10) minutes time."

Maybe with no eye left, either, after all the free services?

Add SMALL WORLD: Mrs. JENNA [DuBose] HOMEYER, whom I met recently in a local beauty shop, is a graduate of Devine High School. She told me that her father-in-law, REX A. HOMEYER, still lives in Devine and "does business in Hondo". Jenna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. I. DuBose and they attended the Black Creek Baptist Church.

I heard that Hondo Baptists have a new minister, the Rev. LANDERS. First thing you know, Hondo will become known as "The Land of the LANDERS".

Always room for one more. Nice folks, "them Landerses".

Leinweber's serving since 1918

When you speak about Hondo retail businesses and their effect on the buying habits of Medina County and Hondo shoppers, one name has deserved mention for more than 65 years.

The E. R. Leinweber Company was, back in 1918, a genuine general store. Its stock in trade in those days took the form of merchandise that today appears in half a dozen businesses.

Where today can you buy a tractor or implements for it, shoes, clothes for men and ladies and children, groceries, hardware, and a glass of beer; and then deposit your money for safe keeping? Back then, Leinweber's had it all.

But the fact is, Leinweber's long ago saw the need to change from a do-it-all store to a do-one-thing-best store, and under present manager Ralph Hauger, Leinweber's has concentrated on doing one job as well or better than anyone else in town.

The business of clothing alone, which once took a corner of the Leinweber store building, has grown in volume to fill the original store building and annex the neighboring room. Today, Leinweber's still serves the whole family's clothing needs, with clothes for ladies and girls, and men and boys.

Leinweber's serves the varying tastes of Hondo's residents, with traditional favorite styles mixed with western and mod fashions.

Serving the customers at Leinweber's is manager Ralph Hauger, a San Antonio transplant who took root in Hondo after coming to town in 1964.

"We were married on the third of July, 1964, and my wife and I moved is W. T. Crow, who has been on that list for 52 years now.

Also employed in the store are Erna Martin, Erna Grell, Sylvia Gonzales, Mary Urrutia, Louise Meyer, Eva Ping, Winnie Clemens, Laura Bless, Norma Bless, Lydia Bohmfalk and Claude Hauger.

The inclusion of another Hauger in the list of employees indicates how Ralph's family feels about Hondo.

Some years ago, Ralph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hauger, were thinking about the prospects of retiring in San Antonio. Ralph and his wife invited them to come live in Hondo, and that's what they did.

Nowadays, Mr. Hauger, who is going on 90 years young, can be seen busy himself at Leinweber's by keeping the building and fixtures clean. It has grown into a kind of hobby for the elder Hauger.

So the E. R. Leinweber Company has kept its tradition alive and still kept its outlook young, with a new "family" of employees that brings its own young and young-at-heart way of business to Hondo.

at Medina Savings

When Medina Savings Association opened its doors for business for the first time on New Year's Day of 1966, the new business included two employees and a total assets of $250,000.

Today, seven years, three employees, one new building and over six million dollars later, Medina Savings is still growing, still improving their service to Hondo, and still contributing to the growth and development of Hondo and Medina County.

Art Formann, President of the lending institution, is proud of the fact that during those years of growth, Medina Savings has never failed to pay dividends on all savings accounts, to maximum amounts allowed by federal regulations.

Today, the list of employees at Medina Savings includes originals Formann and Mary Laughinghouse, along with Diane Brown, Carol Long and Rothe Carle.

The business is housed today in a new building, constructed in 1971 to provide drive up window service, a night depository, and ample parking space. The Medina Savings building also provides office space for other firms.

To keep in contact with changing demands of the saving and lending industry, Medina Savings belongs to the Texas Savings and Loan League, the United States Savings and Loan League, and the Federal Home Loan Bank. All accounts are insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Company.

Medina Savings is supervised by and complies with regulations of the Texas Savings and Loan Department in Austin; the Federal Home Loan Bank

"BEST*SERVICE IN*TOWN"*Dutchman's has a 7-day week

The Dutchman's is many things to many people.

It's a quart of milk on Sunday morning. It's a fishing license when you've already gotten into the truck and started out for the lake.

It's a quart of ice cream at 10:30 at night.

In short, Dutchman's is the sort of place that has what you need or want, when you need it most, where you can get it easily.

Owner George L. Brucks intended it that way, and his manager, Esther Koehler, sees to it that the Dutchman's keeps fulfilling that promise to Hondoans and visitors.

Dutchman's was opened January 1, 1971, with a stock that includes beer, picnic supplies, ice, hunting and fishing licenses, soft drinks, groceries, ammunition, and drugs.

The store is convenient with parking on two sides and a corner location on Highway 90.

The hours are right. The store is open seven days a week, 365 days a year. For late night items, Dutchman's is open until 11 p.m. six nights a week, and stays open until midnight on Saturday night.

Finally, and most importantly, Dutchman's is a friendly place to shop. In addition to Esther Koehler, who has served customers for 1 1/2 years, other clerks include Sammy Nooner and Roy Alcaraz. Ernest Cortez does relief duty also at Dutchman's.

Dutchman's doesn't sell something that no one else sells. But what they have, they do sell whenever it's needed most, day or night, Monday morning or Saturday night.

Bingo Auto Parts owner likes history

Rocky Sedgwick, owner of Bingo Auto Parts, is one man in Hondo who cares not only where the community is heading, but also in telling the story of where it's been.

"If we could only be made to appreciate what the original settlers around this area accomplished with what little they had to work with, maybe we could do more ourselves."

Rocky came with his wife to Hondo from his home in San Antonio in 1954, and soon became interested in the background of Hondo and Medina County.

In fact, his store now is located in the old Bless Building, a very historic structure in its own right. According to Sedgwick, the building was dismantled in its original location at Old D'Hanis, then transported and rebuilt stone for stone in Hondo.

During its history, the building has served as the first office of the R.E.A. in Hondo.

Bingo Auto Parts is an independent dealer in automotive parts and accessories, providing name brand parts for area garagemen and shadetree mechanics. There are an estimated 20,000 different parts in his inventory, which is designed to have the needed parts in stock if at all possible.

It was the demand for a more complete inventory which made Sedgwick decide to move his business to its present location in 1964 from its original site in an old wooden building on Avenue P.

Asked how he likes doing business in Hondo, Sedgwick declared, "I've been here 20 years now. I've got the whole world to move to if I didn't like

Wide selection

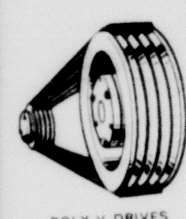

Bingo Auto Parts features a wide selection of accessories, parts, and tools for any automotive repair job. Employee Pat Proctor takes telephone orders in addition to serving in-store customers. Bingo serves garages, rebuilders, and individuals with equal service.

Hondo, but I haven't left yet. In fact, I'd live in town if there were any running streams there like I have in Tarpley."

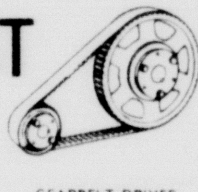

Sedgwick and his wife, and employee Pat Proctor strive to keep abreast of the changing needs of the automotive parts business. New parts and tools come into demand each day, and they try to keep ahead of the demand by upgrading and renewing the stock. For the part which is not in stock, Bingo Auto Parts has access to warehouses and factory inventories, where the needed part can often be obtained in a matter of hours.

Sheryl Hamilton weds Michael Tabberer

Miss Sheryl Denise Hamilton of Alice and Michael Steve Tabberer of San Antonio were united in marriage Saturday, January 20, 1973 at 7:30 p.m. at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Alice with Overseer James Rhinehart officiating in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deauwayne L. Hamilton of Rt. 2, Box 507, Alice. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tabberer of Poteet.

Floor baskets of Azalea and aqua carnations graced the platform. Miss Debra Smith of Alice played the nuptial music on the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal-length gown of light beige candlelight tulle with an overlay of sheer sparkle-light. The yoke featured a duchess neckline with lace and tiny seed pearls trimming the self ruffles. The long fitted sleeves and empire skirt were set of two rows of lace-edged self ruffles re-embroidered with seed pearls, which was made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lester R. Hamilton of Devine. Her tiara of embroidered lace flowers and petals accented with pearls and rhinestones held the tiered bouffant veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of white miniature carnations and delicate greenery with azalea, aqua and moss green streamers.

Mrs. Sharon Roos of Alice was matron of honor. She wore a formal-length empire gown of satin with an overlay of moss green sparkleglight and set off with a candlelight bolero. She carried a bouquet of miniature moss green Italian poppies with matching streamers.

Miss Penny Smith, Alice, was maid of honor. She wore a formal-length empire gown of satin with an overlay of aqua sparkleglight and a bolero of candlelight lace. She carried a bouquet of miniature pink Italian poppies with azalea streamers.

Miss Judy Hamilton, sister of the bride of Alice, was the bridesmaid. She wore a formal-length empire gown of satin with an overlay of azalea sparkleglight and candlelight lace bolero. She carried a bouquet of miniature pink Italian poppies with azalea streamers.

Michael Roos, Alice, was ring bearer.

Malcolm Tabberer, Poteet, was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Robert Roos, Alice, and Tom Pedon of Brooklyn, New York.

Ushers were Steven Hamilton, brother of the bride, and Jim Tabberer, brother of the groom, Poteet.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Reyes Crown Room.

Mrs. Lamar Wade served cake and Mrs. Larry Smallwood served punch from a crystal punch bowl. Mints and nuts were served from crystal appointments.

The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Ann Teague. Mrs. Argie Everett served coffee from a silver service.

Other members of the house party were Mmes. Rodney Miller, Sidney Smith, Robert Rotge, and Misses Terri Hamilton, sister of the bride, Vickie Smallwood, Fifi Sylvia and Anna Gonzales and Judy Brown.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a pantsuit of Navy blue knit with a contrasting print jacket. Her corsage was of white roses.

After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in San Antonio.

The bride graduated from Alice High School and is presently employed at a family center. The groom graduated from Poteet High School and spent a year at the World Headquarters of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society for religious training and volunteer work. He is presently a manager-trainee at a store in San Antonio.

Camp Fire News

Today the O-Da-Ka Camp Fire Group visited the Museum and we really enjoyed ourselves. We saw a beautiful wedding dress and a pair of old baby shoes. We also saw Dr. Taylor's chair and the tools he used when he was a dentist. We all had a wonderful time.

Jo Ann served refreshments.

Jane Rothe honored in Minnesota festival

Jane Rothe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rothe of D'Hanis, returned Tuesday from Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, where she represented Miss Fiesta in the St. Paul Winter Carnival for 1973.

As Miss Fiesta Alternate, Jane represented the San Antonio Fiesta Association in the National Visiting Queens program on Saturday, January 27.

As a National Visiting Queen, Jane was an Honored Guest opening the 1973 "Salute to Western Horizons", offering an array of events and places designed to highlight her appearance.

Miss Fiesta was introduced at the King Boreas Banquet, Coronation and Ball and met the dignitaries and celebrities on hand to witness the Coronation of King Boreas XXXVII.

She was featured atop a Fiesta Flambeau float in the Grand Day Parade

Saturday, which began in a new heated civic center arena seating over 15,000 persons.

In addition to on-the-spot viewers, the event was televised by two stations.

Jane's itinerary included whirlwind stops at outdoor sports in process throughout the weekend, including the National Majorette and Color Guard Contest, a treasure hunt, ice fishing contest and other winter carnival sports.

Jane is a sophomore attending Our Lady of the Lake College in San Antonio.

In college, she is a sociology major in Elementary Education. At D'Hanis High School, she was chosen from her senior class as "Most Beautiful".

Jane was accompanied to Minnesota by Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Andricks. Mr. Andricks is Founder and Director of the Fiesta Flambeau.

Changing challenges in stewardship

"Changing Challenges" will be the theme of Soil Stewardship Week this year. The event, in its 19th year of sponsorship by the National Association of Conservation Districts, will be celebrated May 27-June 3, 1973.

Each year, the theme of Soil Stewardship Week is focused on a key issue of the relationship between man and the natural resources entrusted to him by the Creator, NACD, with the assistance of leading clergymen of many faiths, makes available booklets, church programs, and other materials to aid in observance of the event in churches throughout the nation.

The worth of soil conservation is now widely recognized, this year's booklet points out. To most people it is sensible and right and ought to be done. There is much the same attitude about water conservation and forests and wildlife.

But new issues of greater urgency to most Americans are now at hand. They involve resources, but more importantly, people. They are concerned with population growth and the human environment, with metropolitan expansion and resource opportunities for our young people among others.

The role of stewardship, if it is to be genuinely responsive to the times, must be expanded again. The responsible steward will now begin to look outward, beyond agriculture and beyond the mechanics of conservation itself, to embrace the changing challenges that are demanding his attention.

From the desk of Congressman Kazen

We have experienced a week of the saddest news and the best news, all of which had to be borne amid other major responsibilities.

The Inauguration of President Nixon for his second term, one of the traditional pageants of our country, began the awesome week. The President, in his inaugural address, was not specific on his program for the next four years, but we expect some indications shortly when he sends his State of the Union message to the Congress.

The inaugural parade brought me a special feeling of pride because Texas was so well represented by the Golden Spurs organization from Nixon High School in Laredo. The President had seen this splendid group of girls in a pre-election trip to Laredo, and it was in response to his invitation that they raised funds and made the trip to Washington. I spent some time with the girls and their escorts and thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Youth Well Represented

I considered these young ladies excellent examples of the majority of our youth in contrast to those we read about being involved with narcotics, protests and other types of dissent. I had the same feeling when I met Edward Lautner of Kennedy, who had won a national contest in which high school students wrote their ideas for an Inaugural Address. I was pleased to take Edward to the House floor as the Apollo 17 astronauts addressed the Congress and felt the pride in this land and the great young men who went to the moon.

Then, amidst this exhilaration, came the grievous news that Lyndon B. Johnson had died. Few of us, especially those who knew him as a friend, have yet gained the perspective, that history will provide, but I have often said that I was sure he would be considered one of our greatest Presidents.

We Texans knew him as a representative of our people and a leader in Washington. We watched his growth as his experience and responsibility increased, and shared with the nation the greatness of his fights against poverty, disease, prejudice and illiteracy. We suffered with him in the burdens of the war, and I shall always believe that no one wanted peace more than President Johnson.

Just as we of the Texas Delegation gathered at Andrews Air Base outside Washington to salute Lyndon Johnson as he finished his presidential service and departed for Texas, we gathered four years and four days later for his arrival in Washington for the last time. We participated in the Capitol service, and then we travelled to the LBJ Ranch as he was laid to rest in the hill country he loved.

Vietnam War Ending

Even as we in Washington joined the nation in mourning his death, we experienced relief at President Nixon's announcement that the war in Vietnam was finally ending. I cannot report that I felt exhilaration; this war has been so long and so terrible. We can only hope that our prisoners of war will be returned and the missing accounted for, and that other arrangements will hold firm. I have no reason to wonder, except that the burdens of the conflict have lasted so long.

Yet life demands that we go forward. We in the Congress face special responsibilities at this time, because the Executive has cut programs in actions which contravene laws we passed and the President signed. I met last week with leaders of REA co-ops, concerned over decisions that may cripple their longstanding programs. I told them that I shared their concern, that I recognized that some government spending must be cut but that I felt the Congress should participate in governmental decisions.

I shall be reporting in the future on our efforts.

Owls still leaders — Panthers, Carrizo fall

The Hondo Owls rallied in the fourth quarter Tuesday night to take a 51-28 basketball game from a stubborn, stingy Carrizo Springs team at Wildcat gym in Carrizo Springs.

The Owls outscored the Wildcats 18-3 in the final quarter to post their ninth consecutive district win without a defeat.

Keith Ligon hit on four baskets in the final quarter to pace the Owls with 17 points. Bob Kingsbury of the 'Cats scored 9 points before fouling out in the third quarter.

The Owls draw a bye Friday night, but they will return home Tuesday against the Devine Warhorses.

The Hondo B-Team and Freshmen both posted wins Tuesday night, also.

The Freshmen got balanced scoring efforts from Alex Mendoza, Gable Lopez and Paul Richards. Each of the trio scored in double figures in the game. Villareal of Carrizo led all scorers with his 21-point total.

The Owl B-Team put on a fourth quarter rally of their own to take a 57-37 win with Donny Weyand bagging 14 points.

A close and crucial game in the District 28-AA race came last Friday night at the Hondo gym as the Owls edged Medina Valley 71-69.

Hondo had built up a 10-point lead in the final quarter, but the Panther rally made it necessary to the final 30 seconds to post the win.

Hondo had led 36-35 at halftime, and 48-45 as the fourth quarter began.

Ligon led both teams in scoring with 28 points for Hondo. Doug Helvey added 14 points to the total, and Brian Finger sank 11.

For the Panthers, Mario Garza scored 22 points, followed by Glynn Tschir-hart's 21.

The Medina Valley B-Team held Hondo to just five points in the fourth quarter, and won that game 44-40. James Bendeled Medina Valley with 17 points, and Simon Arcos led the locals with 12.

A 24-point effort by Paul Richards led the Owl Freshmen to a 49-40 victory over the Freshmen of Medina Valley.

Rook Tourney starts Sunday

Don't rook yourself out of an extra dollar before the Second Annual D'Hanis Rook Tournament even begins.

Register now, at either Medina Savings Association or the D'Hanis Lumber Company, and save a dollar on the registration fee.

All couples who register before Sunday at 12:30 p.m. may do so for a fee of $5. Couples registering at the door at D'Hanis Parish Hall on Sunday afternoon between 12:30 and 1:30 p.m. will be charged $6 per couple.

But extra dollar or no, the tournament offers more than your money's worth in good fellowship, the best in card-playing competition, and a guaranteed place to sit down.

In addition, sandwiches, parisa, chips, soft drinks, and setups will be available in the Hall.

A special 20-minute break will be provided halfway through the afternoon to give players a chance to take advantage of the refreshments.

Play will start at 2 p.m. Sunday and all contestants are asked to be in their hall to draw for pairings and hear final instructions at 1:30 p.m.

The tournament will play through five games on Sunday, then five more games on the following Sunday, February 11, to determine a winning couple.

Tournament play on both Sundays is expected to end by approximately 6 p.m.

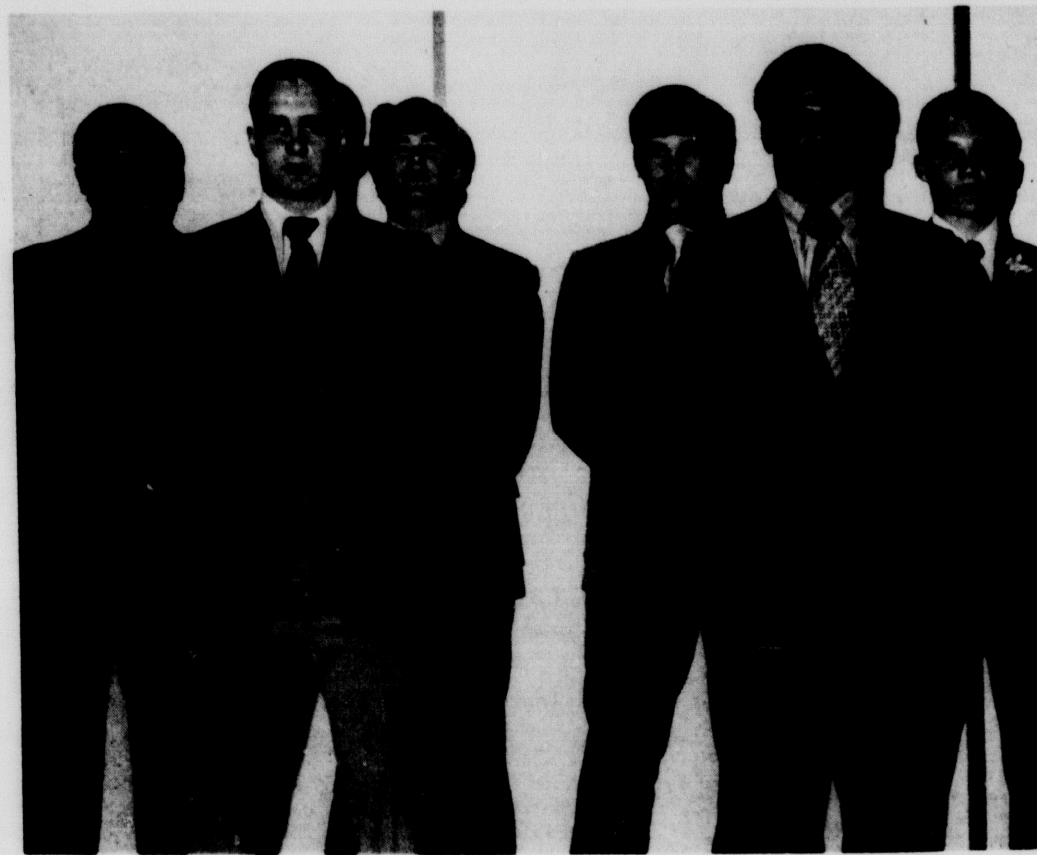

Cash prizes will be awarded to the winning players just as last year, and copies of the tournament rules will be available with entry blanks at both places of registration.

Last year, the tournament was won by a couple of Aggie first cousins, Greg and Tommy Rothe. This year they figure to return to D'Hanis to hurl back all challenges.

But the challengers have been brooding, plotting, and practicing since last year, and they will be entering the fray Sunday with renewed spirit.

There is no qualification necessary for entry in the tournament, other than that of age (you must be beyond high school age to enter).

The tournament is sponsored by the D'Hanis Lions Club, and proceeds will go to aid the flood control projects in which the Lions Club is involved.

Banquet features Jennings

The Hondo Football Banquet was held Saturday, January 27, in the cafeteria of McDowell Middle School.

Principal speaker for the banquet was Dr. John H. Jennings, a Hondo optometrist and a well-known former standout athlete for the Owls.

Part of the program was devoted to each football team from Hondo High School, and each player of each team was introduced by his coach.

Also honored at the banquet were the Varsity football players who were named to the All-District squad. These included Gary Zinsmeyer, Mark Buescher, Gregg Buescher, Keith Ligon, Mike Saathoff and Terry Mechler.

After the banquet portion of the program was completed, the Frederickburg High School Stage Band provided music for dancing.

Every day is 'special' at SA Show

Every day is a 'special' day at the 1973 San Antonio Stock Show and the activities taking place at the Joe Freeman Coliseum on each of these days have to be planned well in advance of the show.

Each year a group of dedicated stock show supporters from outside the confines of Bexar County gather at the Coliseum to coordinate their various efforts.

Such a meeting for the 1973 show took place this past week with some of the chairmen traveling hundreds of miles to discuss their plans with stock show officials.

Wednesday, February 14, will be Winter Garden Day. Chairman of the Winter Garden Day activities is Gordon Hudson of Uvalde.

The 24th annual San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo will run from February 9-18.

Starring at this year's show will be popular TV character from the CBS series "Gunsmoke" Festus Haggen, who in real life is singer and actor Ken Curtis (Feb. 9, 10, 11 and 12); Judy Lynn, (Feb. 13, 14 and 15) who will be making her fourth appearance at the show, and Jerry Reed (Feb. 16, 17 and 18), one of country music's top entertainers.

The Winter Garden Day, as represented at the 1973 show, consists of Medina Uvalde, Maverick, Zavala, Dimmitt and Frio counties.

Blue Bird News
The Globe Trotter Blue Birds participated in the Arbor Day program given by the Hondo Garden Club on the Museum grounds.

Later in our club room we made bird feeders out of pine cones. We put peanut butter and bird seed on each petal. A string was added to tie it onto a tree limb.

Dale Duncan and Sharon Myers are our new helpers. Mrs. Redus served us cookies and orangeade.
